INTERNATIONAL WILDBIRD PHOTO COMPETITION

Deadline : December 2, 2024 at 10am (Paris time)

BIRD AND NATURE FESTIVAL

2025 Wildbird Photo Competition

Since 1991, the Bay of Somme, internationally recognized as a major spot on the migratory routes, celebrates the return of spring and birds with the Bird and Nature Festival. Nine days of exciting activities to watch, marvel, learn and educate!

For the 34th time, the Bird and Nature Festival launches its international wildbird photo competition, now one of the 10 most renowned in Europe. The competition aims to illustrate the high quality of wildlife photography through excellent pictures from all over the world. It also seeks to promote awareness for nature conservation through the means of photography.

All award-winning images and a Jury's selection will be shown during the event which will be held from 12 to 20 April 2025.

TERMS OF ENTRY

This online competition is open to everybody, amateur and professional photographers aged 18 or over of whatever nationality. The Festival's team and the jury members are not allowed to join in.

This competition is an ethical contest. The participants guarantee that the images they submit have been shot in full compliance with laws related to the preservation of wildlife.

They are expected to keep in mind the well-being of the birds and their environment, and to avoid injury or distress to the birds or destruction of their habitat. Pictures of domesticated, trained or captive bird are prohibited.

2025 CATEGORIES

BIRD PORTRAIT: Photos capturing the character or spirit of the bird and its distinctive features. The subject can be photographed in closeup or whole, single or in group.

BIRD IN ITS ENVIRONMENT: Photos that best demonstrate the relationship between a bird and its habitat natural or urban, and the importance of the environment. The landscape must be an important part of the picture.

BIRD BEHAVIOUR: Images that best depict a bird behaviour or an action. This could be unusual, interesting, amusing or remarkable behaviour, or depict something familiar as feeding, preening, nuptial display, fighting...

BIRD IN FLIGHT: Flying, taking-off or landing, flocking or murmuration: as long as your subject is on the wing then it can be entered. Be attentive to the composition, the light, color and texture of the background. Please, avoid flash at night on flying nocturnal birds.

ARTISTIC VISION OF BIRD: The creativity of the photographer must transform the mundane into a contemplative and artistic interpretation and offer a new perspective on the bird.

OTHER FLYING SPECIES: any image of an animal (except birds) using its wings to fly.

THE JURY

Preselection and submission of originals

All photographs will be submitted online to a jury composed of photographers, naturalists and ornithologists, in December.

At the end of the pre-selection, participants with one or more photo(s) selected will be invited to send us the original file (raw or native jpeg) before January 22. If not received, the image will not be included in the final selection.

Final Jury

This same jury will meet on 23 and 24, January 2025 to choose the photos to be exhibited during the Festival and to designate the winners, by checking the relevance of the images according to the information and the original provided. The Jury will proceed in accordance with the rules of anonymity.

After the end of deliberations, the winners will be notified by e-mail and invited to send TIFF (8-bit) or JPEG high resolution at 300 dpi,. These files must be provided by email return for the realization of prints for the exhibition.

Results will be communicated to the participants by email before the end of January, and will be published on the Festival's website and social networks.

The jury's decisions are final.
